929 Harding Street

COST: MEMBERS – FREE

NON-MEMBERS WHO SIGN UP AND PAY FOR ONE YEAR – FREE

NON-MEMBER NEIGHBORS - WELCOME! $10.00 PER PERSON

Crawfish and Social began at 3 p.m. Meeting convened at 4:00 p.m.

- Mr. Kyle Shelly, Community Liaison from the Mayor's Office of Neighborhood Engagement discussed the new "One Stop Shop" permitting process; 311 and how to use it; and the Mayor's new innovation team.
- Council Member Susan Guidry discuss new developments in the neighborhood. Specifically, some tenants of the Mid-City Market are open for business and others are on the verge of opening. Costco is set to open in the Fall, and progress on streets and blight continue.
- Neighbors expressed their concerns to both members of city government regarding traffic around the Mid-City Market, the Mid-City Volleyball Group proposal; and parking on the bayou and streets during special events.
- There was discussion and debate regarding the Mid-City Volleyball Group's proposal to lease the strip of land at Orleans Avenue and N. Jeff Davis Parkway. PNA members voiced their concerns and overwhelming opposition to the proposal.
- Resumption of crawfish boil and social.

Respectfully submitted,

Andrew Duffy, PNA Vice-President/ Secretary

¹ Minutes are abbreviated and agenda is attached due to the social nature of the meeting and early departure of the Secretary.
